

More Carnival!

Carnival is a typical festivity in our town. In these days there are a lot of people.

The majority of people when they go out, they dress up. There are a lot of types of fancy dresses.

Carnival last seven days, two weekends and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The first day is the inauguration when a popular person gives a speech, later there are fireworks. At night all people go out dressed up.

These are the fireworks

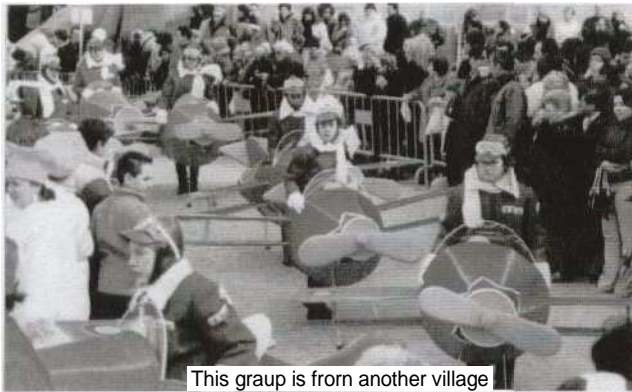

One group of people dressed up

On Sunday there is a parade of floats * and groups of people dressed up to participate in a competition. In The Evening there are regional dances where people wear their regional dress.

On Monday, in the morning, there is a children competition. Monday and Tuesday some more people dressed, people go out with original dresses, dancing in streets and the neighbourhood invite them to eat typical sweets, called "Rosquillas" and "Retorcios" and in the evening there are regional dances in which the Band of Music play the "Jota" during all evening.

This group is from another village

On Wednesday people go to the main square to eat sardines.

The last weekend on Sunday there are big competitions with other towns with floats and group of people dressed up. The groups work for a long time to make their fancy dresses and floats made of cork.

The winners receive different prizes of money and trophies and all the groups receive cured ham and three bottles of wine.

Finally, in the evening there are regional dances in the main square where many people enjoy.

Both pictures represent different floats

